POLICY GUIDELINES ON LENDING TO MICRO & SMALL ENTERPRISES

1. INTRODUCTION

MSME is a fast growing sector in the Indian Economy. Every Bank has given highest importance to financing MSMEs in their strategic growth plan. It has become necessary to bring policy shift and create free market environment from regulations & interventions in economic activity. Growth resulting from globalization and liberalization is visible most profoundly in the MSME segment. The relationship between the banker and the customer has become most crucial and competitive. The technology has entered the scene almost as a natural corollary of liberalization. Liberalized policies provide ample opportunities to Indian Market to compete with developed and developing countries. The clearance of the Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises Development (MSMED) Act, 2006 is a turning point for the development of Indian industry, as it addresses and streamlines entire framework along with key governance & operational issues being faced by the MSMEs.

The Reserve Bank of India has, from time to time, issued a number of guidelines/instructions/ circulars/directives to banks in the matters relating to lending to Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises Sector. The Policy guidelines given below include the Bank's Commitment to Customers under Micro & Small Enterprises as defined by RBI from time to time. At present, the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises are defined in the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development (MSMED) Act, 2006 as under:

Segment	Manufacturing Enterprises (Investment in Plant & Machinery)	Service Enterprises (Investment in Equipment)
Micro Enterprise	<= Rs.25 lakh	<= Rs.10 lakh
Small Enterprise	> Rs.25 lakh and <= Rs.5 crore	> Rs.10 lakh and <= Rs.2 crore
Medium Enterprise	> Rs.5 crore and <= Rs.10 crore	> Rs.2 crore and <= Rs.5 crore

The Bank is committed to the Code of Conduct to Customers given by The Banking Codes and Standards Board of India (BCSBI) for Micro & Small Enterprises, revised from time to time. BCSBI has evolved two sets of Codes:- Code of Bank's Commitment to Customers and the Code of Bank's Commitment to Micro and Small Enterprises. The Code has been evolved by the BCSBI in collaboration with the RBI, IBA and the Member Banks. The central objective of the Code is promoting good and fair banking practices, setting minimum standards, increasing transparency, achieving higher operating standards and above all, promoting cordial banker-customer relationship which would foster confidence of common man in the banking system. These Codes have been adopted by the member banks of BCSBI and the Bank is a member of BCSBI from 2012 onwards. The Code of Bank's Commitment to Micro and Small Enterprises (MSE Code) is a mandatory code, which sets minimum standards of banking practices for banks to follow when they are dealing with Micro and Small Enterprises (MSEs) as defined in the MSMED Act, 2006. It explains norms that banks are expected to follow while dealing with MSEs for day-to-day operations and in times of financial difficulty. The provisions of the Code of Bank's Commitment to Customers is not only a Charter of Rights to MSE Customers but also their responsibilities vis-a-vis the Bank, such as;

- g) Delayed Payments. Considerable delay in settlement of dues/payment of bills by the large-scale buyers to the micro & small manufacturing units adversely affected the recycling of funds and business operation of micro & small manufacturing units. The Act since amended in 1998 has made it compulsory that the payment of micro & small manufacturing suppliers should be made within 45 days. RBI has advised banks about sub-allotting overall limits to the large borrowers specifically for meeting the payment obligations in respect of purchases from micro & small manufacturing. - a) The objective of the scheme is to ensure timely & transparent mechanism for restructuring the debts of viable entities facing problems. The policy aims at preserving the viable units that are affected by certain internal & external factors and minimize the losses to the creditors and other stake holders through an orderly and coordinated restructuring programme.
- b) Restructuring would be allowed to the following entities, which are viable or potentially viable

The units/activities not considered viable shall not be restructured and bank will accelerate recovery measures in respect of such accounts, which may include One Time Settlement (OTS) of such accounts.

- i. Before commencement of commercial production.
 - ii. After commencement of commercial production/operation but before the asset has been classified as "sub – standard".
 - iii. After commencement of commercial production/operation and the asset has been classified as "sub-standard" or "doubtful".
- f) Procedure for processing restructuring proposals under MSME Mechanism. A simplified procedure on following lines shall be followed:
- i. The borrower can submit a request to the branch for restructuring his account at any time subject to fulfilment of conditions mentioned above.
 - ii. In case of eligible MSMEs, which are under consortium / multiple banking arrangements, the borrower will submit his request to the consortium leader. However, the restructuring package will be worked out with the consent of the bank having the second largest share.
 - iii. All requests received from the borrowers will be scrutinized by respective branches to ensure that the requests are prima facie in order, on the basis of examination of projected financial statements for the proposed repayment period, and are eligible for consideration as per the prescribed criteria.
 - iv. Restructuring proposals shall not be entertained for the only possible reason of avoiding the possibility of slippage of such accounts. Any proposal for seeking restructuring shall be entertained only after ascertaining the reasons of potential or existing irregularity in the account and forming an opinion in the matter. However, no restructuring proposal shall be rejected by any authority without seeking concurrence of the next higher authority.
- g) Procedures for determining financial viability of the unit Determining financial viability and ascertaining certainty of repayment shall be the main scrutiny area of a restructuring proposal. Conclusion on financial viability shall be drawn on the basis of examination of the unit's past performance and projected financials, including cash flow statements, for the proposed repayment period and after ascertaining that the projected financials are realistic and achievable and that the outstanding debt can be serviced during the proposed repayment period.

- h) Viability of the unit and fulfilment of related conditions. The eligible units shall have to comply with the following conditions:
 - i. The unit becomes viable in 7 years and the repayment period for the restructured debt, including moratorium, does not exceed 10 years.
 - ii. Promoter's sacrifice and additional funds brought by them should be minimum of 15% of Bank's sacrifice.
 - iii. Personal guarantee, in case of advances to companies, is offered by the promoter/s except under the circumstances of unit having been affected by external factors pertaining to the economy and industry.
- i) Techno Economic Viability (TEV) study. In case, TEV study is found necessary for ascertaining the viability of the unit with a fair degree of accuracy, TEV report shall be submitted by the borrower.
- j) Determining financial viability of small loans. In case of proposals involving restructuring of small loans to Micro Enterprises (Manufacturing), Micro Enterprises (Services) including advances to Small Road & Transport Operators , Small Business and Professional & Self Employed persons, which on account of small scale of business operations are neither obliged to maintain nor are maintaining audited financial statements, restructuring may be considered in absence of audited and detailed projected financial statements subject to fulfillment of following conditions.
 - i. It is established that restructuring is necessitated by factors which are beyond the control of the borrower.

 - iii. It is established that past performance of the borrower has remained satisfactory.
- k) Delegation. The authority to implement Debt Restructuring Mechanism for MSMEs shall be as per credit delegation rules.
- l) Time period for working out and implementing the package. frame as prescribed by CDREG shall be followed. All the accounts eligible for restructuring shall be handled strictly as per prudential norms issued by RBI from time to time.

- m) Framework for revival and rehabilitation of MSME. Stressed assets which are eligible for restructuring will be identified and suitable corrective action taken by appropriate authority.

9.12. Streamlining flow of credit to MSEs for facilitating timely and adequate credit flow during their 'Life Cycle'. Micro and small units are more prone to facing financial difficulties during their Life Cycle than large enterprises / corporates when the business conditions turn adverse. Absence of timely support at such a juncture could lead to the unit turning sick and many a time irreversibly. As such, role of banks in providing continuous support to viable MSEs during such phases of transient financial difficulties assumes significance. RBI has advised banks to ensure that the lending policies for MSEs are streamlined and made flexible in order to empower the officials concerned to take quick decisions on credit delivery to MSEs. In this connection, bank may consider the following guidelines.

- i. Standby Credit Facility – Bank may, at the time of sanction of project loans, consider sanction a “standby credit facility” to fund unforeseen project cost overruns, if needed. Such “standby credit facilities” are sanctioned at the time of initial financial closure; but disbursed only when there is a cost overrun. At the time of credit assessment of borrowers / project, such cost overruns are also taken into account while determining viability and repayment ability of the borrower. Bank shall, as part of their lending policy to MSEs, consider a similar approach of providing a “standby credit facility”, while funding capital expenditure, to fund unforeseen increases in capital expenditure. Further, at the discretion of bank, such “standby credit facility” may also be sanctioned to fund periodic capital expenditure. The objective of such “standby credit facility” would be, among others, to extend credit speedily so that the capital asset creation is not delayed and commercial production can commence at the earliest.
- ii. Working Capital Limits – In terms of extant RBI guidelines, banks are allowed to determine working capital requirements according to their assessment of the borrowers and their credit needs. Banks are required to have a transparent policy and guidelines for credit dispensation, with the approval of their Board, in respect of each broad category of economic activity. In this connection, Bank shall also fix a separate additional limit, at the time of sanction / renewal of working capital limits, specifically for meeting the temporary rise in working capital requirements arising mainly due to unforeseen / seasonal increase in demand for products produced by them. Such limits may be released primarily, where there is a sufficient evidence of increase in the demand for products produced by MSEs. Bank may also sanction ad-hoc limits subject to the extant prudential norms, to be regularized not later than three months from the date of sanction.

- iii. Review of Regular Working Capital Limits – At present, bank reviews working capital limits at least once in a year based on audited financial statements. However, audited financial statements of MSE units would ordinarily be available with a time lag, post-closing of the financial year. In such cases and where bank is convinced that changes in the demand pattern of MSE borrowers require a mid-term review, we may do so. Such mid-term reviews shall be based on an assessment of sales performance of the MSEs since last review without waiting for audited financial statements. However, such mid-term reviews shall be revalidated during the subsequent regular review based on audited financial statements.
- iv. Timelines for Credit Decisions – Timely credit is critical to the growth of a healthy MSE sector. Towards this Reserve Bank has issued several guidelines. Direction of RBI to make suitable disclosures on the timelines for conveying credit decisions through their websites, notice-boards, product literature, etc shall be complied with. Bank may comply with the following timelines for disposing of (regular, additional / ad-hoc credit facilities and restructuring of accounts, if considered viable) for MSE borrowers in line with the loan policy of the Bank.

Loan applications from units under MSME sector will be disposed off within a reasonable time as mentioned below, provided such applications are complete in all respects.

ii) Loans beyond Rs.5 lakhs and upto Rs.25 lakhs	Four weeks from the date of furnishing all documents /information

9.13. Code of Bank's commitment to Micro and Small Enterprises.
